Pastor's Message

A LETTER FROM HEAVEN

SPECIAL DELIVERY: From Heaven
TO: Kennedy Family
FROM: John F. Kennedy

Sorry I had to leave right away,
I look down and smile at you everyday.
Little Patrick says to say, "Hi, I love you,
I'm happy, so please don't cry."

And Caroline, I'd like to say,
How proud Daddy was of you that day,
When you stood like a lady and watched me go by,
And doing as Mommy, you tried not to cry.

Little John, now you're the big man,
Take care of Mommy the best you can.
You were just like a soldier; that salute was so brave.
Thanks for the flag you put on my grave.

And Jackie, I had not time for goodbyes,
But I'm sure you could read the farewell in my eyes.
Watch over the children and love them for me,
I'll treasure your love through eternity.

So please carry on as you did before,
Till all of us meet on Heaven's bright shore.
Remember, I love you, Remember I care,
I'll always be with you, although you don't see me there.

Love,
Jack

My dear seniors:

Take a lesson from this letter. As you are leaving the halls and classrooms of your beloved school, remember the ideals and principles you were taught.

You are now joining the ranks of the young men and ladies of the world. Much will be asked of you, so remember . . .

It's not how to make a living, but how to live.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1964 OF SACRED HEART HIGH SCHOOL.

Be it remembered that we, the Class of 1964, of Sacred Heart High School, situated in the town of Muenster in the County of Cooke in the State of Texas, being in our usual unsound state of mind and memory, but mindful of the uncertainty of this life and our approaching dismemberment, do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by us made.

After the payment of all our just debts, funeral charges, grudges, and expenses of administration, we dispose of our estate as follows:

To our principal and teachers we leave blessed peace, calm days, and peaceful nights, undisturbed by the harrowing problems that we, as a class, presented them.

To our underclassmen, the members of the junior class, we personally bestow the following:

Nancy Klein wills her problems with teachers to Mary Jeannette Knabe and her contact lens to Danny Yosten.

Kathleen Knabe bequeaths quietness to Jane Hess.

Patsy Streng wills her good deeds to Alama Herr.

David Bayer wills his red cowboy boots to Charles Klement.

John Endres wills his red hair to Blondie Fleitman and his superiority to Wayne Reiter.

Frank Schilling wills his collection of alibis for neglected homework to David Hess.

Earl Cunningham leaves his varied assortment of "late-to-class" excuses to Melvin Koelzer.

Clinton Endres leaves his valuable and never failing tips on "how to get by without working" to Donald Rohmer.

Claudia Endres wills her ability to sail through her subjects effortlessly to Rachael Endres.

Rose Vogel wills her ability to read-over-shoulders to Larry Reiter.

Cyril Yosten wills his hot-rod bus to Ray Wimmer.

Virgil Hess bequeaths his greasy kid's stuff to John Albert Stoffels.

Eileen Knauf leaves her good looks to Tom Schmitt.

Francis Fuhrmann wills his eye-catching curls and heart-stopping dimples to Shirley Vogel.

Virginia Taylor wills her always-open-mouth to Dolores Sicking.

Dale Bayer wills his size to Donny Rohmer.

James Fleitman gives his ability to talk to himself to Marilyn Walterschied.

Quintin Hess bequeaths his quietness to LaVerne Otto.

Dennis Hess leaves his politeness to all the junior boys.

Flora Mae Sims leaves her hot temper to Doris Grewing.

Wayne Cler wills his ability to drag the halls during class to Danny Wilde.

Thomas Fuhrmann bequeaths his wisecracks to Eileen Hesse.

Rita Noggler wills her politeness to Danny Hoenig.

Shirley Wimmer wills her good grades to the Junior girls.

Jeannine Hofbauer leaves her leadership ability to Angie Hess.

Class History

There have been six great events in the history of this world. The first was the appearance of Adam and Eve. The second was the rise of King Tut. The third was the death of Julius Caesar. The fourth was the crossing of the Atlantic by Columbus. The fifth was the reign of Jack Dempsey. And the sixth was the entrance of the class of 1964 into Sacred Heart High School.

Of these, the first five are of minor importance. Adam and Eve, I believe, are now dead. King Tut is in a museum. Julius has been eclipsed by Mussolini. Columbus has moved to Ohio. And Jack Dempsey is just a faded cauliflower. But the class of 1964, not only is history, but is still making history.

In August, 1961, twenty-two meek, frightened freshmen crept unhesitatingly through the portals of Sacred Heart High. What instruments of torture might be awaiting us we did not know; from the dungeon horrors of medieval Europe to the electric chair of modern civilization, we expected and suspected everything. Non-chivalrously we remained in our home-room during breaks fearing the mighty seniors. Leading us that year were: Francis Fuhrmann, president; Earl Cunningham, vice-president; Joyce Owen, secretary; and James Eckart, treasurer. Sponsoring our class was Mr. George Petrus. Selected as Queen candidate was Rita Noggler, and class favorites were Eileen Knauf and Francis Fuhrmann.

In spite of all this we prospered during that first year. Little by little our greenness wore off, and our true intelligent natures began to assert themselves. Sponsoring our sophomore class was Sister Theresina. Class officers were: Jeannine Hofbauer, president; Dale Bayer, vice-president; Eileen Knauf, secretary; and David Bayer, treasurer. Our sophomore class favorites were Rita Noggler and Clinton Endres. In the Football Queen's race, Joyce Owen was our candidate. As sophomores, we were permitted the honor of selecting a cheerleader so Rita Noggler was chosen to fill this position. During this year we gave a set of cymbals for the pep-squad and a model head and skeleton for the science department.

During that second year it took the combined efforts of all our teachers, and the juniors and seniors to keep us in our place. In our new wisdom we wanted to symbolize the revolt of modern youth.

Our third year in Sacred Heart High was one of great progress. In numbers we barely held our own, but in wisdom we became mental giants. We learned how to recite various topics without advanced preparation. We became practiced in the art of making excuses for avoiding home study and other excuses for not having completed assignments.

Chosen to lead the class as president was John Paul Endres; vice-president, Frank Schilling; secretary, Eileen Knauf; treasurer, Jeannine Hofbauer. Eileen Knauf was chosen as the junior class cheerleader, and Rita Noggler placed second in the Football Queen's race. Our junior class sponsor was Sister Roberta. Class favorites were Eileen Knauf and John Paul Endres. On May 7, the junior class presented a play: "Man Overboard," a three-act comedy.

Then came our final and most eventful year as a class. As seniors we had learned to get along with a maximum of flowery speech and a minimum of brain racking effort. Of physical wear we report the following: false teeth, none; wooden legs, none; broken bones, six; glass eyes, none; lost appendixes, one; hoarse voices, four; broken hearts, sixteen. All in all we reported to graduation in fair condition.

Class officers were Jeannine Hofbauer, president; Thomas Fuhrmann, vice-president; Virginia Taylor, secretary; and Dennis Hess, treasurer. Mr. Adam Wolf was our class sponsor.

The three senior cheerleaders were Eileen Knauf, Rita Noggler, and Jeannine Hofbauer. Head squadron leader was Virginia Taylor and assisting her were Shirley Wimmer and Flora Mae Sims.

Patsy Streng, senior candidate, became the 1963 Tiger Football Queen and reigned over the Homecoming football game and dance.

On March 30 and 31, the juniors and seniors presented, "In the Place of the Breaking Light," a musical comedy.

Highlighting the year were the sports banquet and dance; the trips to the Dallas Theater Center to see "Julius Caesar" and "Comedy of Errors;" the junior-senior banquet and prom; May Crowning with Sodality prefect, Virginia Taylor, crowning the Blessed Virgin; campus day; and our senior trip.

Sheila,
You're a real sweet kid & I hope our friendship will always last-

Gloria

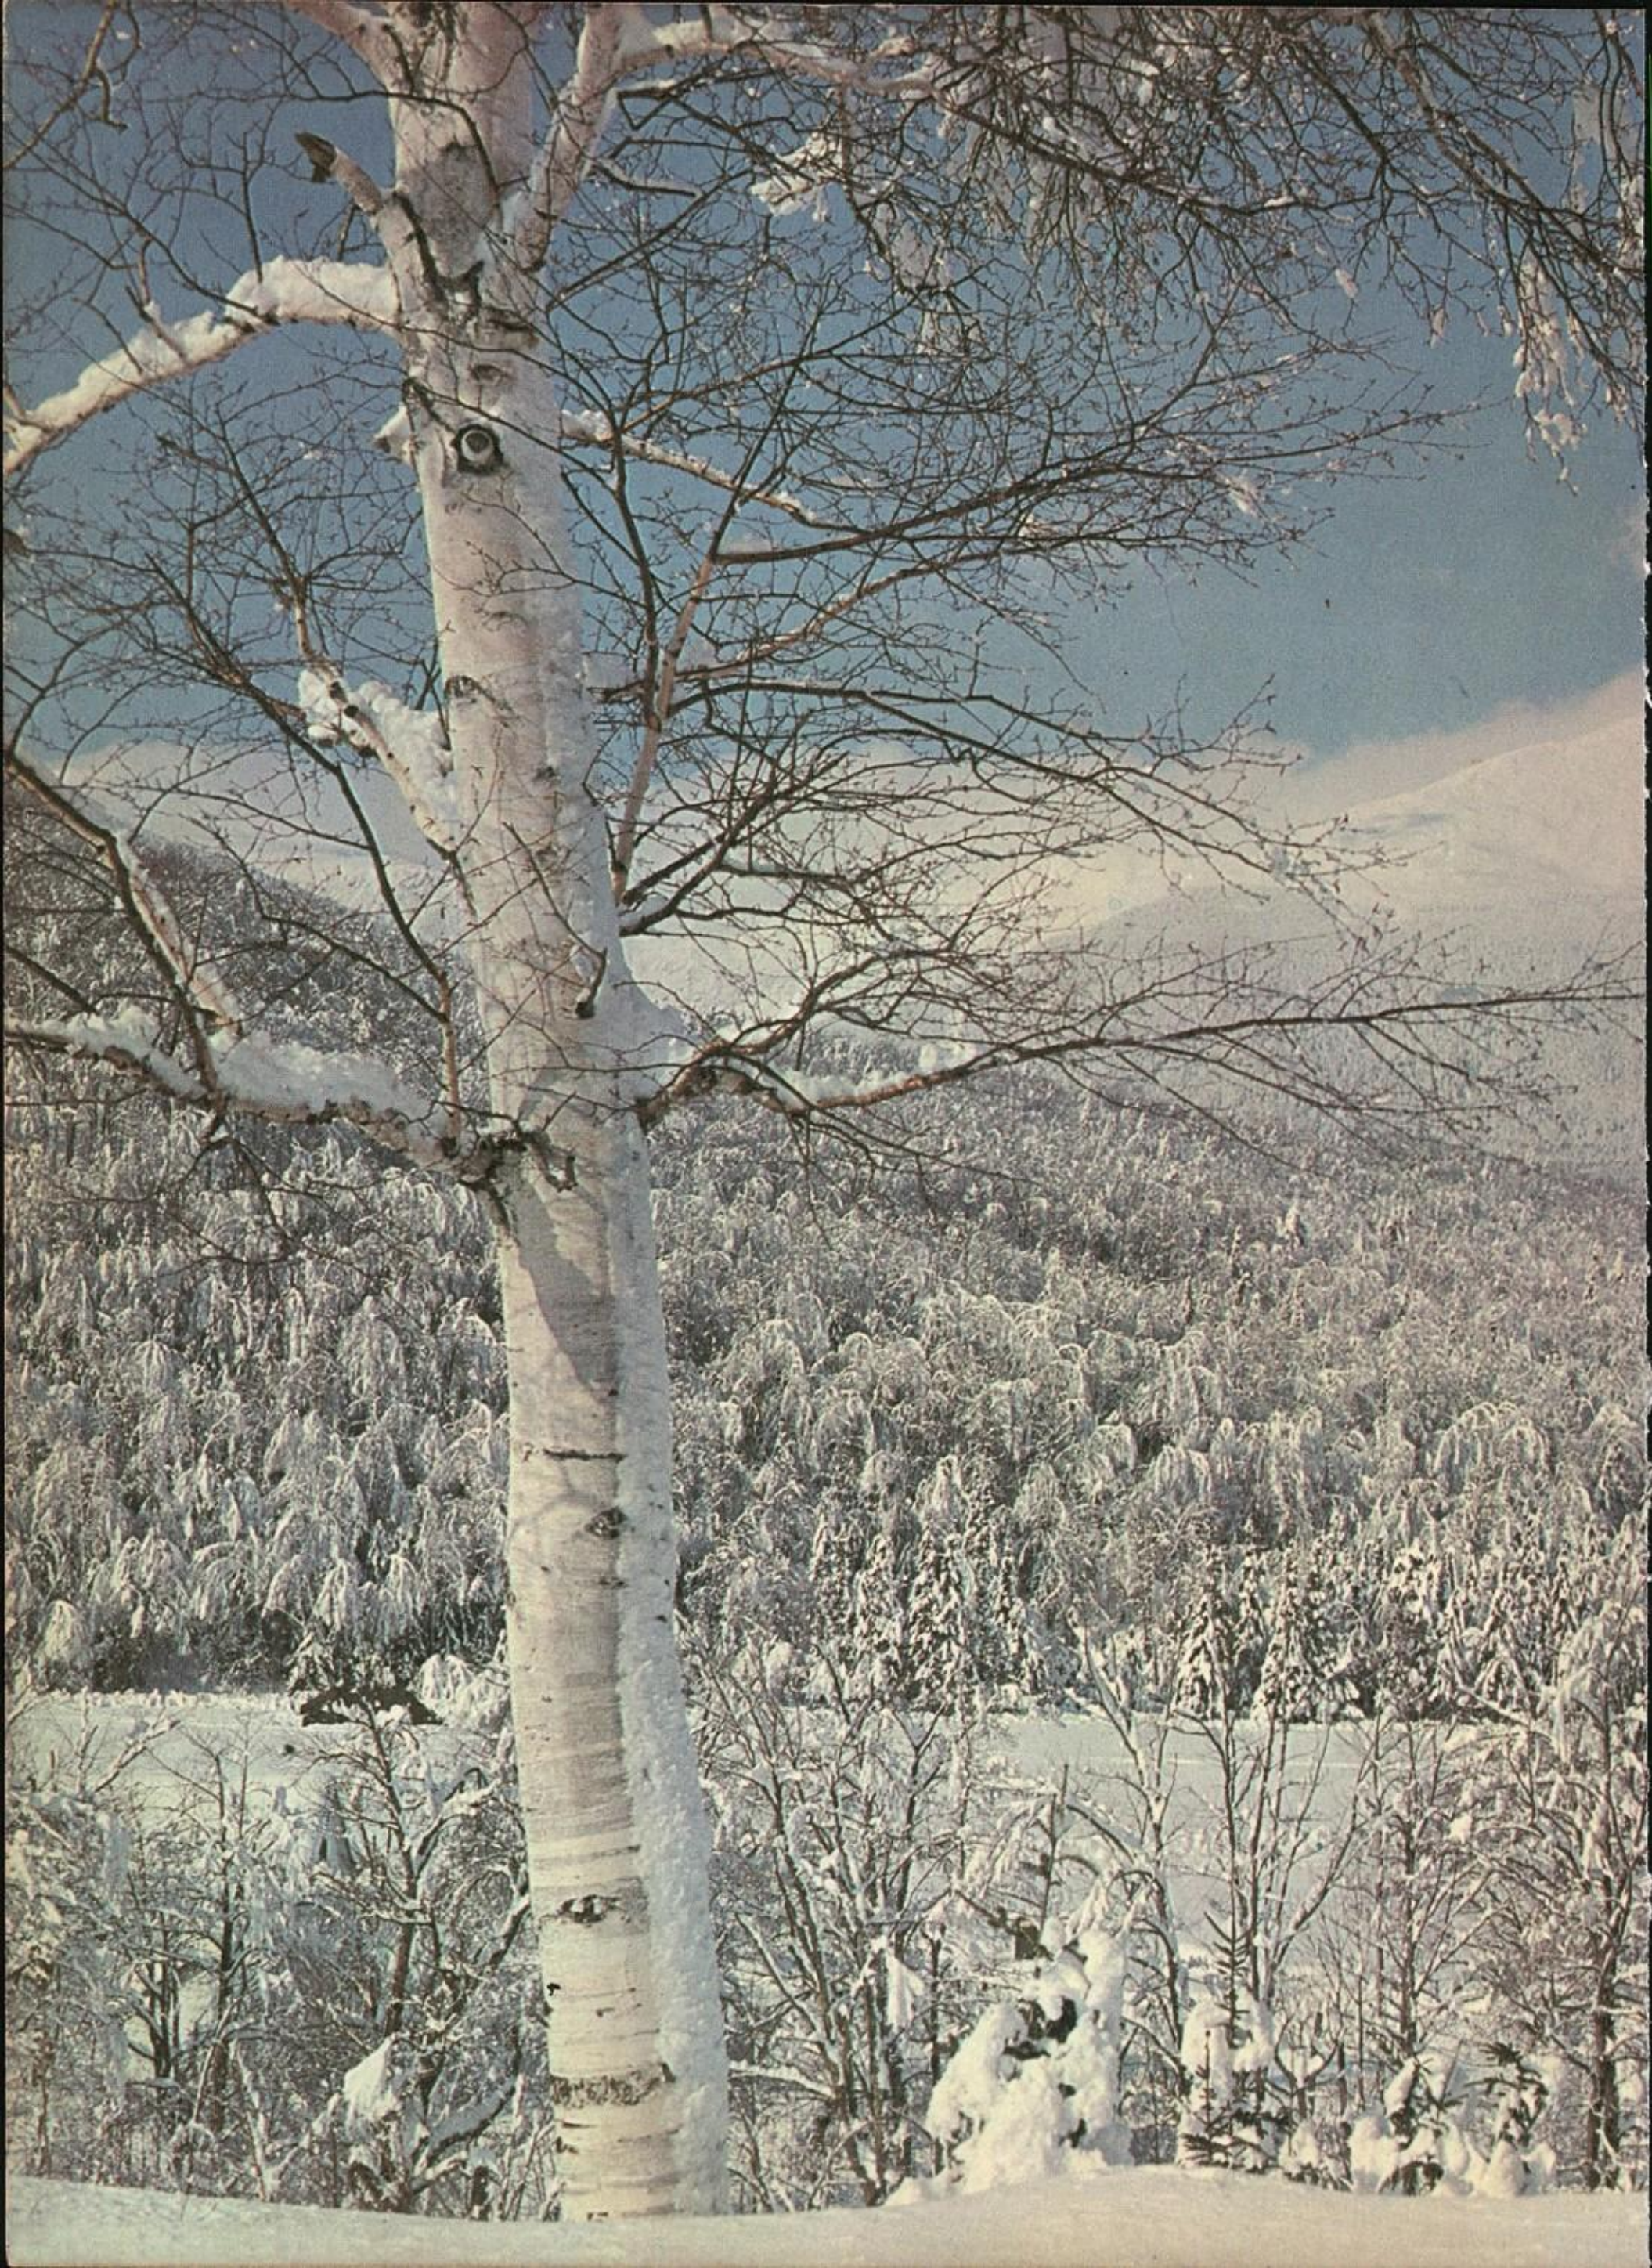
Sheila,

Remember in about the sixth grade when Linda Fisher & me & you hung around each other. We had a slumber party one night. You wanted a banana. Boy we had fun then, we still do. We Wish you luck, Never change.

Deb.


Sheila
Best of luck in the future. Have fun & be good.
Love
Raymond
